SECTION-B.- DEPARTMENTAL PROCEDURE

9. Consultation amongst Various Departments. (1)

When the subject of a case concerns more than one Department.-

- (a) the Department incharge shall be responsible for consulting the other Departments concerned; and
- (b) no orders shall be issued, nor shall the case ordinarily be submitted to the Chief Minister or the Cabinet until it has been considered by all the Departments concerned and they agree to it:

Provided that in case of urgency, and with, the approval of the Chief Minister, this requirement may be dispensed with, but the case shall at the earliest opportunity thereafter be brought to the notice of the Department concerned.

(2) If the various Departments concerned cannot reach on agreement and the Minister-in-Charge, after consultation with the other Ministers concerned, desires to press the case, the case shall be submitted to the Chief Minister, or with the Chief Minister's approval, to the Cabinet:

Provided that where the Chief Minister is the Minister-in-Charge, the final view of other Departments concerned shall be obtained before the case is submitted to the Chief Minister.

(3) When a case is sent by one Department to another for consultation, all relevant facts and the points necessitating the reference shall be clearly brought out.

(4) Even where consultation is not required a Department may, for purpose of information, pass copies of a communication received by it, or show a case, to such other Departments as it considers would be interested in it:

Provided that copies of Cypher telegrams received or dispatched by the Cypher office shall be distributed in accordance with standing orders issued by the Chief Secretary.

10 Chief Secretary. (1) The Chief Secretary shall be the head of the service of Gilgit-Baltistan and leader of the team.

(2) He will be the chairman of the Secretaries Committee.

(3) He will be the head of the Services and General Administration Department.

(4) It shall be the responsibility of the Chief Secretary to coordinate the work of all Departments of Government.

(5) The Chief Secretary may call for any case or information from any Department or Attached Department.

(6) The Secretary, Home Department shall keep the Chief Secretary generally informed of all matters affecting public tranquility. He shall, in particular, submit through the Chief Secretary, all cases likely to have major political repercussions.

11. Consultation with Finance Department. (1) No Department shall, without previous consultation with the Finance Department, authorize any orders, other than orders in pursuance of any general or special delegation made by the Finance Department, which directly or indirectly affect the finances of Gilgit-Baltistan.

(2) No proposal which requires previous consultation with the Finance Department under sub-rule (1) but in which the Finance Department has not concurred, shall be proceeded with unless a decision to that effect has been taken by the Cabinet. Formal order shall, nevertheless be issued only after the Finance Department has exercised scrutiny over the details of the proposal.

(3) Except to the extent that power may have been delegated to Departments under rules made by the Finance Department, every order of an Administrative Department conveying a sanction to be enforced in audit shall be communicated to the audit authorities through the Finance Department.

12. Consultation with Law Department. (1) The Law Department shall be consulted by the Departments.

- (a) on all legal questions arising out of any case;
- (b) on the interpretation of any law;
- (c) before instituting criminal or civil proceedings in a court of law in which Government is involved;
or
- (d) whenever criminal or civil proceedings are instituted against Government.

(2) For any proposed legislation, the Law Department shall be consulted in accordance with the provisions contained in these rules.

(3) Except as provided for in sub-rule (4), the Law Department is not, in respect of legislation, an originating office and its proper function is to put into correct form all proposed legislation. It is for the Administrative Department concerned to consider the desirability of legislation and all points connected therewith. After it has reached its conclusions, it shall refer the case to the Law Department with a memorandum indicating precisely the lines on which it is proposed to legislate which should include:-

- (a) a statement in the form of series of propositions detailing the provisions required to be made, or preferably, a draft bill; and
- (b) a statement giving the objects and reasons for such provisions.

(4) The Law Department, apart from giving shape to the draft legislation, shall advise the Administrative Department whether any sanction is required under existing statutory provisions and whether any further legal requirements are to be complied with. The Law Department shall also advise whether the proposed law disregards or violates, or is not in accordance with the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, whether a reference should be made to the Council of Islamic Ideology or the Gilgit-Baltistan Council for advice, if not already done, and if so, what shall be the terms of that reference. The Administrative Departments shall, after obtaining the approval of the Cabinet in terms of rule 20, return the draft legislation to the Law Department for further action in terms of rule 36.

Explanation.- for the propose of this rule the expression "legislation" includes a bill or ordinance or an amendment thereto.

(5) Legislation relating to the codification of substantive law or for the consolidation of existing enactments, or legislation of a purely formal character, such as repealing and amending bills and short title bills, may be initiated in the Law Department. It shall, however, consult the Administrative Departments concerned which shall consider the draft legislation in its bearing on administration, make such enquiries and consultations as may be necessary, and tender advice to the Law Department accordingly.

(6) The Law Department shall be consulted by the Administrative departments before the issue of the following; namely :-

- (a) any order, rules, regulations, notification, or bye-law issued in exercise of statutory power; and
- (b) any sanction authorizing a subordinate authority to issue any order, rules, regulations, notification or bye-law under a statutory power.

(7) The Law Department shall advise whether the proposed draft is strictly within the power conferred by the Order and is in the correct form.

(8) No Department shall consult the Advocate-General, except through the Law Department, and, in accordance with the procedure laid down by that Department. The Departments should draw up specific points on which the opinion of the Advocate-General is desired.

(9) If there is disagreement between the views of the Advocate General and the Law Department, the views of both the Law Department and the Advocate General should be conveyed verbatim to the Department concerned, and if the Department concerned does not accept the view of the Law Department, the case shall be submitted to the Minister for Law for a decision who may, in his discretion, take such a case to the Cabinet.

(10) Bills requiring assent or sanction of the Chairman of the Council shall be referred to the Council Secretariat by the Law Department.

13. Consultation between the Heads of Attached Departments and Secretariat Officers. Cases requiring the approval of Government shall be referred in as complete form as possible to the Department concerned by the Heads of Attached Departments and shall ordinarily be settled in personal discussion between the Head of the Attached Department and the Secretariat Officer dealing with the case.

14. Secretaries Committee.- (1) There shall be constituted a Secretaries' Committee with the Chief Secretary as its Chairman, to facilitate coordination amongst the Departments, to provide a venue for the consideration of matters of common interest and to tender advice on any case that may be referred to it by the Chief Minister, the Cabinet or a Minister.

(2) A Secretary who wishes a particular matter to be discussed in the Secretaries' meeting shall advise the Services and General Administration Department (S & GAD) of his intention of doing so and forward forty copies of a brief note on the subject which would form the basis of discussion.

(3) The S & GA Department shall issue notice of a meeting, together with the agenda, well in advance of the meeting except that urgent items may be considered at short notice.

(4) Secretaries meeting shall be attended only by Secretaries of Departments, or such other officers as may be required by the Chief Secretary.

(5) Minutes of the meeting shall be recorded (except in those cases where a record may not be considered necessary) by an officer of the S & GA Department, who shall attend the meeting for the purpose, and shall be circulated, after approval by the Chief Secretary, as soon after the meeting as practicable.

(6) Conclusion reached at the meeting of the Secretaries' Committee shall not be taken as decisions of Government. Any further action required shall be taken by the Department concerned in accordance with the rules.

SECTION-C.- SERVICES

15. Public Service Commission.- The advice of the Public Service Commission shall ordinarily be accepted by the Department in all matters where it is obligatory to consult the Commission under any rules or regulations for the time being in force. If it is proposed not to accept the advice of the Commission, it shall be submitted to the Governor through the Chief Minister, who may give an opportunity to the Public Service Commission of further justifying its recommendation before a final decision is taken.

16. Observance of quota in Services.- Appointment to various positions in the service of Gilgit-Baltistan shall be made in accordance with the prescribed quota for APUG/DMG/APS officers specified in the Fifth Schedule to Order.

17. Selection Board.- (1) Government may constitute one or more Selection Boards and specify the appointments and promotions to posts, other than those to be made on, the advice of the Public Service Commission.

(2) Difference between Selection Board and the Department.- In any case, a Department does not propose to accept the advice of Selection Board in regard to a matter in which its advice is required under sub-rule (1), the case shall be returned to the Selection Board for reconsideration and the Selection Board shall reconsider such case. If on reconsideration the difference still persists, the case shall be submitted to the Chief Minister through the S & GA Department for his orders.

18. Posting, foreign Visits, training or Leave.-(1) Transfer of officers' specified in column (2) of Schedule-III shall be made by the authorities shown against such Officers in column 3 thereof.

(2) The S & GA Department shall be consulted if it is proposed to-

- (a) transfer the holder of a tenure post before the completion of his tenure or extend the period of his tenure; and
- (b) require an officer to hold charge of more than one post for a period exceeding four months.

(3) The Establishment Division in consultation with the Ministry of Kashmir Affairs and Gilgit-Baltistan shall be responsible for all transfers of Federal Government Officers to Gilgit-Baltistan in line with laid down policy for such transfers.

(4) The posts of Chief Secretary, Inspector General Police, Additional Chief Secretary/Secretary Planning & Development Department, Finance and Home Department shall be reserved for officers of the APUG.

Provided that the Secretary Finance Additional Chief Secretary/ Secretary P & D will be appointed in consultation with the Finance Division and P & D Division respectively.

(5) Posting and transfer of officers working in departments autonomous bodies whose subjects fall under the legislative jurisdiction of the Gilgit-Baltistan Council shall be done in consultation with the Council.

(6) All contract appointments and re-employment shall be made in accordance with Schedule III-A.

(7) Foreign visits/Training/Leave of officers/officials show in column (2) of Schedule-III-B shall be made by the authorities shown against such officers in column (2) thereof.

SECTION-D.- CABINET PROCEDURE

19. Collective responsibility.- The Cabinet shall be collectively responsible to the Gilgit-Baltistan Legislative Assembly for the advice tendered to, or the executive orders issued in the name of the Governor, whether such advice or order has been tendered or issued, as the case may be, by an individual Minister or as a result of decision by the Cabinet.

20. Cases to be brought before Cabinet.- (1) Following cases shall be brought before the Cabinet; namely:-

- (a) proposals for legislations on subjects contained in the Fourth Schedule to Order, official or non-official, including Money Bills;
- (b) promulgation and revocation of ordinances;
- (c) the budget proposals before the presentation of the annual budget and other financial statements;
- (d) proposals for the levy of new taxes within their powers as per Order;
- (e) cases involving vital political, economic and administrative policies;
- (f) cases which the Chief Minister acting on his own initiative or at the instance of another Minister considers important enough for reference to the Cabinet; and
- (g) important reports and documents required to be laid before the Assembly;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (1), the Chief Minister may, in any case, advise the Governor as to the manner of its disposal, without prior reference to the Cabinet.

21. Method of disposal by Cabinet.- (1) Cases referred to the Cabinet shall be disposed of-

- (a) by discussion at a meeting, of the Cabinet;
- (b) by discussion at a meeting of a committee of the Cabinet; provided that the decisions of the Committee shall be ratified by the Cabinet unless the Cabinet has authorized otherwise; or
- (c) by circulation amongst Ministers.

Note.- Committees of the Cabinet may be constituted, and their terms of reference laid down, by the Cabinet.

Such Committees may be Standing or Special Committees accordingly as they are appointed to deal with a class of case or a particular case.

22. Manner of submission of cases to Cabinet.- (1) In respect of all cases to be submitted to the Cabinet, the Secretary of the Department concerned shall transmit to the Chief Secretary a concise and lucid memorandum of the cases (hereinafter referred to as the "Summary") giving the background and relevant facts, the points for decision and the recommendation of the Ministers:

Provided that in the event of the views of the Department being different from the views of the Minister, both the views shall be included in the summary.

(2) The summary shall be self-contained as far as possible, and may include as appendices such relevant papers as are necessary for the proper appreciation of the case.

(3) In the case of proposed legislation to which approval is sought in principle the summary shall bring out clearly the main issues to be legislated upon.

(4) Where a case concerns more than one Department, the summary shall not be forwarded to the Cabinet unless the case has been considered by all the Departments concerned. In the event of a difference of opinion the point, of difference between them shall be clearly stated in the Summary, a copy of which shall be sent by the sponsoring Department to other Department concerned simultaneously with the transmission of the summary to the Cabinet.

(5) No summary containing a proposal involving financial implications shall be submitted to the Cabinet unless the Finance Department has been consulted and its views incorporated in the summary.

(6) All drafts, bills, ordinances or orders having the force of law shall be submitted to the Cabinet after the same have been vetted by the Law Department and no changes shall be made therein except after consultation with the Law Department.

(7) No case for inclusion in the agenda shall be accepted unless it is sent at least four clear days in advance of the meeting:

Provided that if the case is urgent, the Secretary concerned may approach the Chief Secretary for its inclusion in the agenda, and, if he agrees, a note shall be sent for circulation to the Cabinet showing how the case is urgent and why it could not be submitted in time.

(8) The S &GA Department shall satisfy itself that the papers submitted by a Secretary are complete and in appropriate form. It shall ordinarily return a case which does not meet with the requirements of these rules and of any other instructions on the subject.

23. Procedure regarding Cabinet meeting.- (1) Regular meeting of the Cabinet to discuss ordinary business shall normally be held once a week on a day and time to be fixed by the Chief Minister:

Provided that the Chief Minister may direct any variation in day and time, and may call for special meetings of the Cabinet at any time on any day of the week to discuss urgent business.

(2) In the absence of the Chief Minister, the most senior Minister referred to in clause (3) of Article 30 of the Order, shall preside over the meeting.

Note:- Reference to the 'Chief Minister' in this rule includes the Minister nominated by the Chief Minister under sub-rule (2).

(3) The Chief Secretary shall ordinarily issue to the Ministers, three days in advance of a meeting, the agenda of the meeting, together with the summaries relating to the items or agenda. A copy of the agenda and the summaries shall be submitted to the Governor at the same time. In the case of special meetings, the circular notice may be issued less than three days in advance.

(4) No case shall be discussed unless the summary relating to it has been circulated:

Provided that the Chief Minister may dispense with the requirements of this sub-rule, where on the representation of the Minister-in-Charge, he is satisfied that the circumstances were such that the papers could not be supplied.

(5) The Secretary concerned with a case shall, unless otherwise directed, attend the meeting of the Cabinet in which the case is under discussion. He shall, however, take no part in the discussion unless invited to do so.

(6) If, in the absence of the Minister-in-Charge from headquarters, the Secretary of the Department concerned considers that the discussion on a case should await the Minister's return he may request the Chief Secretary for its postponement. The Chief Secretary shall thereupon obtain the orders of the Chief Minister in regard to postponement.

(7) The Chief Secretary shall attend all meetings and prepare -

- (a) a brief record of the discussion which, in the absence of special directions by the Cabinet to the contrary, shall be of an impersonal nature; and
- (b) a record of the decisions without any statement or the reasons therefore, and shall submit a copy of these records within twenty four hours of the close of the meeting to the Chief Minister for his approval.

(8) The Chief Secretary shall circulate to the Ministers and to the Governor a copy of these records, as approved by the Chief Minister and shall send to the Secretary of the Department concerned a copy of the decision only.

(9) If a Minister considers that there has been a mistake or omission in recording the minutes, he shall point it out to the Chief Secretary within twenty-four hours of the issue of the minutes. The Chief Secretary shall thereupon obtain the orders of the Chief Minister and, if necessary, issue a corrigendum and correct the official record in his office.

24. Procedure regarding Committees of Cabinet.- (1) Meetings of the Committees of the Cabinet shall be convened by the Chief Secretary under the direction of the senior member of the Committee who shall preside at the meetings.

(2) Officials of the Departments concerned may be associated with the deliberations of the Committees as and when considered necessary.

(3) The provisions of rule 22 and 23 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the manner of submission of cases to, and the procedure for, the meetings of Committees.

25. Procedure regarding Circulation of Cabinet cases.- (1) When a case is circulated to the Ministers for recording opinion, the Chief Secretary shall specify the time by which opinions should be communicated. A summary of the case shall be simultaneously submitted to the Governor. If a Minister does not communicate his opinion by that time, it shall be assumed that he accepts the recommendations contained in the summary.

(2) If a difference of opinion amongst Ministers is observed in the course of circulation, the Chief Secretary shall unless the Chief Minister directs otherwise, obtain further observations of the Minister concerned with a view to reaching an agreed conclusion.

(3) After all opinions have been received and the further observations of the Ministers concerned have been obtained, if necessary, or after the time specified has expired, the Chief Secretary shall-

- (a) in the event of full agreement to the recommendations in the summary, treat it as Cabinet decisions and proceed further in terms of sub rule (8) of rule 23; and
- (b) in the event of difference of opinion or a major change in the original recommendations contained in the summary being agreed to by the Minister-in-Charge and one or more Ministers, obtain the direction of the Chief Minister whether the case should be discussed at a meeting of the Cabinet, or the recommendations of the majority of Ministers be accepted and communicated as Cabinet's decision.

35. General Procedure.-(1) Department shall, in their relations with the Assembly, comply with the rules of procedure and standing orders of the Assembly.

(2) Orders of the Governor for convening a session of the Assembly shall be obtained by the Law Department and communicated to the Secretary of the Assembly.

(3) As soon as the date of session of the Assembly is fixed, it shall be notified in the Gazette by the Secretary of the Assembly and thereupon all Departments shall undertake a review of the official business intended to be brought before the Assembly and shall promptly forward to the Law Department detailed lists of such business not later than seven days before the commencement of the session.

(4) The Minister for Law shall prepare a provisional forecast of the business to be brought before the Assembly and shall make proposals to the Speaker for the allotment of days for the transaction of official as well as non-official business. The programme as approved by the Speaker shall be communicated by the Assembly Secretariat to all the Departments and the Secretary to Governor.

(5) When the Assembly has been summoned by the Governor, he will at the appropriate stage, fix a date for the prorogation of the Assembly.

(6) The Secretary of the Assembly shall, when the session called by the Governor is nearing completion of its business, obtain the orders of the Governor through the Law Department, as to the date for the prorogation of the Assembly.

(7) The Secretary of the Assembly shall notify in the Gazette the date fixed for the prorogation of the Assembly.

(8) Copies of the bills, resolutions, motions, questions and other business to be brought before the Assembly shall be forwarded as soon as received, to the Department concerned by the Assembly Secretariat.

(9) For the correct allocation of business of the Assembly to the departments, the Assembly Secretariat may consult the Chief Secretary, whenever it is in doubt.

(10) If a bill, resolution, motion or question has been wrongly addressed to a Department by the Assembly Secretariat, it should be promptly transferred to the Department concerned, in consultation with the Chief Secretary, if necessary, and under advice to the Assembly Secretariat.

(11) The Assembly Secretariat shall advise the Departments as soon as is known that a non-official bill, resolution, motion or question has been admitted in its final form, or not admitted, so that the Departments may regulate their action accordingly.

(12) As soon as any communication (whether a notice, intimation, bill or any other paper) is received from the Assembly Secretariat or any other authority regarding the business or affairs of the Assembly, the receiving officer shall at once bring it to the notice of the Secretary and the Minister.

36. Official Bills and amendments.- (1) After taking action in terms of rules 12 and 20, the Department concerned shall forward to the Law Department, the draft legislation in its final form with a statement of objects and reasons, duly signed by the Minister-in-Charge. The Law Department shall obtain the previous consent of the Government to the introduction of the bill, if such consent is necessary. This action shall be completed irrespective, and preferably well in advance, of the date of commencement of a session of the Assembly.

(2) The Law Department shall arrange to include the bill in the official business of the Assembly. The bill shall be introduced in the Assembly by the Minister-in-Charge or any other member on his behalf, and thereafter published in the Gazette by the Assembly Secretariat. If, however, the bill is of great urgency, the Law Department may request the Assembly-Secretariat to publish it in the Gazette before introduction.

(3) After the introduction of a bill, the following motions be made in regard to it, namely

- (a) that it be taken into consideration and passed;
or
- (b) that it be referred to a Select Committee; or
- (c) that it be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon.

(4) The Department concerned shall formulate the line of action to be adopted, and prepare a brief for the use of the Minister-in-Charge.

(5) The procedure regarding amendments shall be the same as for official bills.

(6) After a Bill has been passed, the Assembly Secretariat shall forward the Bill to the Governor, through the Law Department, in the form in which it is passed, duly signed by the Speaker. The Governor shall-

- (a) accord his assent to the Bill; or
- (b) if it is a Bill other than a Money Bill, return the Bill to the Provincial Assembly with a message requesting that the Bill, or any specified provision thereof, be reconsidered.

(7) After the Governor has returned a Bill to the Gilgit-Baltistan Assembly for reconsideration and the Bill is again passed by the Gilgit-Baltistan Assembly, with or without amendment, it shall be again presented to the Governor and the Governor shall assent thereto.

(8) After the Governor has passed orders, the Law Department shall inform the Department concerned and publish the Bill, if assented to, in the Gazette.

37. Non-Official Bills and Amendments.- (1) As soon as a notice regarding the introduction of a non-official bill is received from the Assembly Secretariat by a Department, it shall consult the Law Department and-

(2) If the bill is in order, the Department concerned shall take action in accordance with the provisions of rule 36 and the procedure relating to official bill shall apply mutatis mutandis to it.

(3) Procedure regarding amendments shall be the same as for non-official bills.

38. Resolutions and Motions.- (1) When an official resolution or motion is to be moved in the Assembly, the Department concerned shall, after consulting the Law Department send a formal notice duly signed by the Minister to the Secretary of the Assembly who shall, if the resolution or motion is admitted by the Speaker, arrange for its inclusion in official business of the Assembly and-

- (a) the resolution may be for the constitution of a statutory body, declaration of policy on a

- matter of general public interest, etc, or
- (b) official motions may be for the election of members to standing adhoc committee of the Assembly, raising discussion on a particular matter, etc.

(2) On receipt of a non-official resolution or motion from the Assembly Secretariat, the Department concerned shall examine it and obtain the orders of the Cabinet, if the time permits. Orders of the Chief Minister, where necessary, shall be obtained.

(3) In examining the resolution or motion, the Department concerned shall consider whether the discussion of the resolution or motion, or any part of the same, would be detrimental to the public interest. If so, it should point this out, with reasons in its comments on the resolution or motion, as the case may be.

(4) The Department concerned shall prepare a brief regarding each resolution or motion, official or non-official, for the use of the Minister.

(5) After a resolution or motion has been adopted, the Assembly Secretariat shall forward it to the Department concerned for appropriate action.

39. Questions.- (1) On receipt from the Assembly secretariat of questions (starred or un starred or short notice), proposed to be asked by member, the Department concerned shall draft replies with the approval of the Minister, and in the case of a Department which has not been assigned under these rules to any Minister, with the approval of the Secretary-in-Charge of that Department and forward the required number of copies to the Assembly Secretariat before the day on which the question is to be asked. In the case of starred questions, briefs shall be prepared by the Department concerned for the use of the Minister to assist him in answering any supplementary question that may be asked.

(2) A copy of the supplementary question asked in the Assembly in respect of a starred question and the replies given shall be forwarded by the Assembly Secretariat to the Department concerned as soon as possible after the proceedings have been transacted.

(3) The Department concerned shall be responsible for giving effect to any undertakings given by the Minister in reply to questions.

40. Budget.-(1) The Finance Department shall forward proposals regarding the date for the presentation of the annual budget to Secretary to the Assembly and the latter shall obtain the orders of the Chief Minister through the Chief Secretary. On receipt of orders a notification in the Gazette shall be issued by the Secretary of the Assembly.

(2) On receipt of a motion proposing a cut in a demand (or supplementary demand) for grant of funds, the Department concerned shall examine the points raised in the motion, or any further points likely to be raised, and prepare a brief for the use of the Minister-in-Charge.

SECTION-G.- MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

41. Protection and communication of official information.- (1) No information acquired directly or indirectly from official documents or relating to official matters shall be communicated by a Government servant to the press, to non-official or officials belonging to other Government offices, unless he has been generally or specially empowered to do so.

(2) Detailed instructions shall be issued by the Chief Secretary for the treatment and custody of official documents and information of a confidential character.
